THE FIRST STEP

A baby's health must be taken before birth. The child can have no more health than the mother gives it. A healthy mother, strong of body and of mind, will endow the child with her own physical and cheerful disposition. Many a wife who had dreaded motherhood because of past experience of prenatal misery of mind and body has found a new era open to her with the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It gives a physical strength, soothes the nerves, and induces refreshing sleep. It gives vigor and elasticity to the organs of maternity, so that the birth hour is practically without pain or suffering. It enables the mother to provide a plentiful supply of nourishment for the healthy child. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. There is no alcohol in "Favorite Prescription" and it is absolutely free from opium, cocaine, and all other narcotics. Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce's letter free of charge. All correspondence strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Littleton, N. V.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are a pleasant and effective laxative medicine. It is in all its stages there should be cleanliness. ELY'S CREAM BALM cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives cold in the head quickly. CREAM BALM is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. It is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large can, 50¢ at druggists or by mail. ELY BROTHERS, 50 Warren Street, New York.

For Over Fifty Years ASOLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Mary's Sore Throat Syrup has been used for many years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the inflamed gums, keeps the mouth cool, and is the best remedy for Diarrhea. It is pleasant to the taste, sold in glass bottles in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Mary's Sore Throat Syrup and take no other kind.

BIGGEST NUGGET OF GOLD.—The biggest nugget of gold ever received at the assay office in Wall Street, New York, according to Superintendent Andrew Mason, arrived last week from the Cariboo Consolidated Hydraulic Mining Company, in British Columbia. It was contained in the New York "Express" of the Bank of Montreal. The nugget contained a fraction over 750 pounds of the solid yellow metal, and is valued at $154,000.

It came in a solid cone, the shape of a bee hive, and stood about two feet in height. The cone was wrapped in canvas and fitted in an oblong box made of two-inch planks and heavily bound with iron. The gold was held firmly in the box by two wooden wedges driven in from the top. Two heavy iron rings were set in the sides of the rough log, and through these were fitted wooden bars, by which the box was lifted. It required four men to remove it from the truck in the assay office to the scales.

"We do not like to get these large nuggets," said Superintendent Mason, "because it is so difficult to handle them. But it is because they are difficult to handle that the miners like to mould them in bulk. It would be next to impossible for robbers to run away with a nugget like the one received last week, and it accordingly costs less for the miners to insure it in transit."

"We shall melt the nugget down and mold it in bars of a size convenient for handling. It will be weighed again after it has been melted down and moulded, and this weight will form the basis of payment."

MONKEYS TERRORIZE A SHIP.—The British steamship Indravelli arrived in New York recently from Singapore, after a hard experience with 28 monkeys, who mutilated on board, harassed the crew, and practically seized the ship. When the ship was two days out of Singapore all the monkeys got loose and ran up the rigging and all over the vessel. The crew of 72 men, except those needed to man the ship, turned to and chased monkeys for a week. It was ten days before they had the last one. They were in the cabin, in the staterooms, everywhere. One of them ascended the funnel and fell in and was cremated. Another committed suicide by jumping into the sea. Two others also leaped overboard. Tom and Jerry and Wally-Pat were in the pantry gorging themselves, and were helping themselves to plum pudding when they were cornered. Frank, the police monkey, caught three himself. Frank has paraded up and down on guard before the cage ever since—he and Fido, the Japanese poodle. Frank is a smart monkey. He salutes the captain as big as life every morning, and he is now being taught to eat with a fork.

DUKE OF MARLBOROUGH SUES.—Lady William Beresford (formerly Lillian Duchess of Marlborough) has brought action against the young Duke of Marlborough to recover the money which she spent in improving Blenheim Palace during the lifetime of the late Duke. The matter came up originally when the present Duke succeeded to the title, but, owing to the friendly relations existing between the Duke and his stepmother, it was temporarily arranged. Since the Duke's marriage to Consuelo Vanderbilt, it is reported, an estrangement has grown up between Lady Beresford and her stepson. On more than one occasion, it is said, the young American Duchess snubbed her countrywoman (Lady Beresford was formerly Mrs. Louis Hamersley, of New York), until the latter determined she could not submit to such treatment any longer, and she now asks the law to compel her stepson to return the amounts she spent on Blenheim.

TRIED TO BREAK THE SPELL.—"There she lies. She bewitched me and I killed her." This was the declaration made by Mamie Bolist early Monday morning regarding her grandmother, Mrs. Mary Gates, in northeast Baltimore. She was partly mistaken, for the old lady was not killed, and is expected to recover from the murderous assault made upon her by her granddaughter. The old lady was struck a fearful blow on the head with an iron skillet while she lay asleep upon a lounge in the downstairs front room of the Gates home about 2:30 o'clock Monday morning. She is seventy-five years old, and so badly afflicted with rheumatism that she cannot walk. The girl is not a regular inmate of the household, but, according to Frank Gates, comes there "when she has no other place to go." Somehow the girl, who is superstitious, got it into her head that the old lady had "cast a spell" over her and determined to kill her. The assault was the result.

Chamberlain's Pain Balm Cures Others, Why not You?

My wife has been using Chamberlain's Pain Balm, with good results, for a lame shoulder that has pained her continuously for nine years. We have tried all kinds of medicines and doctors without receiving any benefit from any of them. One day we saw an advertisement of this medicine and thought of trying it, which we did with the best of success. She has used only one bottle and her shoulder is almost well. —ADOLPH L. MILLET, Manchester, N. H. For sale by all druggists.

Avoid all drying inhalants and use that which cleanses and heals the membrane. Ely's Cream Balm dropping of mucus has ceased, voice and hearing have greatly improved. —J. W. Davidson, Attorney at Law, Monmouth, Ill.
